Trans Mountain is monitoring the impact of construction on pipeline communities through a series of indicators identified in the Socio-Economic Effects Monitoring Plan. This Project impact information is gathered for each three-month period in a regional Socio-Economic Monitoring Report. Highlights from the quarterly regional report are provided here.

Construction Inquiries and Topics

- Total number for this Quarter: 29†
  - Traffic: Damage to car when flagging arm came down on vehicle; incorrect sign placement resulting in damage to vehicle; Project workers parking on street; traffic delays; Project-related vehicles speeding; Abbotsford resident complained that street sweeper was leaving metal tines and rock on the roadway.
  - Sensory Disturbances: Inappropriate language close to residential area. The Worker Code of Conduct specifies that all workers are ambassadors of the Project, and that people living in the area are treated with respect and consideration during construction. In this instance, the contractor and Trans Mountain employees have been reminded to tell work crews to watch their language.
  - Worker Conduct: Yarrow resident issues exiting property due to traffic congestion. Each complaint is examined to provide additional information and/or appropriate followup.
  - Access: Contractors have a Traffic Management Plan that addresses public protection measures, access roads/routes to the construction site and Traffic Control Plans for each work zone, which consider potential impacts with mitigation. Trans Mountain follows up with the contractor to ensure traffic-related requirements are met. Each complaint is examined to provide additional information and/or appropriate followup. For example, vehicle damage is being investigated and crews have taken steps to ensure it does not happen again. Workers have been advised not to park on streets.
  - Noise in Abbotsford from Project-related vehicles using private driveway to turn around; early morning noise from Project-related delivery truck; noise and vibration from Project-related dump trucks and construction; concerns about vibration and dust from construction; Abbotsford residents complained about alarm going off overnight.
    - Trans Mountain is working to ensure compliance with bylaws and requirements. Trans Mountain works with stakeholders to resolve and address such complaints where practical. For example, crews have been reminded not to use private driveways to turn around. For the alarm in Abbotsford, security advised it was a trespass alarm and the security manager will follow up directly with the residents.
